

Wildlife Art.

Bringing a touch of nature to your home

Black Hen Designs

Originally from Surrey Andrew Pain moved with his wife Vida to her native Lisacul, Co. Roscommon in 1997. Together they started Black Hen Designs in late 2010 with the idea of designing and creating a beautiful range of quirky illustrations on glass. With a keen passion for nature and all things rural, the Irish countryside became the inspiration for his designs.

Bex Shelford

Bex Shelford is an artist, illustrator and print maker living in County Dublin. She creates modern and colourful prints with an appealing clean-lined illustrative style. Her series of illustrations of Irish garden birds are taken from observations from her garden and the surrounding countryside near her home. All her work is designed and produced in Dublin.

For more information, please visit bexshelford.com

Dollybird Art

A childhood immersed in art and nature led artist Eimear Maguire to establish her own creative brand Dollybirds Art. Her hand-painted prints reflect her love of nature, plants and native Irish wildlife. Collectable artwork designed for the nature lover. Perfect displayed as a single statement feature or as a set to add elements of nature to your home.

For more information, please visit dollybirdsart.com

Kathryn Callaghan

Kathryn Callaghan creates unique poured paintings and prints from her studio in County Down. Supplying architects, interior designers and the hospitality industry with fine art since 2014, her work has become synonymous with Irish wildlife art. Her semi-abstract style is distinctive and brings the energy of the natural world indoors with beauty and flair.

For more information, please visit kathryncallaghan.co.uk.

